We are sending you this information about the Zonta Club of Indianapolis and our Women Scholars Book Award for you to distribute to applicable students at your school. The Zonta Club of Indianapolis has provided book awards to many students since the inception of our program in 2003. We believe that our award acknowledges the challenges that mature women face when returning to school and we hope our award not only provides some financial assistance but also gives the applicant encouragement to complete their academic endeavors.

Please distribute the applications to your students. The award for this time period is $250.00 and the due date for applications is April 1, 2015. If you or the students have questions about the Book Award process, you may email me at dhall3333@aol.com or contact me by phone at 317/313-3497.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
Holly Hall
Zonta Club of Indianapolis, Scholarship and Awards Committee
Zonta International is a worldwide service organization of women in business and the professions working together to advance the status of women. There are over 30,000 members in over 1200 clubs in 64 countries and geographic areas worldwide.

Founded in 1919, Zonta takes its name from the Lakota Sioux Indian word meaning “honest and trustworthy”. Zontians volunteer their time, talents and energy to local and international service projects that are designed to advance the status of women.

The Zonta Club of Indianapolis provides a variety of services to women in Central Indiana including assisting women’s shelters, providing scholarships for female high school students, and community service projects for disadvantaged women.

In 2003, the Zonta Club of Indianapolis developed the Women Scholars Book Award to help mature women students meet some of the financial expenses related to educational pursuit. Zonta Club of Indianapolis defines mature students as those women, 30 and older who are actively engaged in academic programs. Applicants for the Zonta Book Award can be full or part time students who have successfully completed 2 semesters of work towards a degree from an accredited college or university in the greater Indianapolis area. Applicants are required to complete and submit the Zonta Women Scholars Book Award application and return it along with a copy of their school transcript to the Zonta Scholarship and Award Committee representative listed on the Application.

Deadline for submission is April 1, 2015.
Name: __________________________________________________________________________________

Address: __________________________________________________________________________________

City: __________________________________________ State: ______ Zip: ________________________

Phone: __________________________ Email: ____________________________________________

College/University attending: ____________________________________________________________________________________________________________

Major: ___________________________________________ Years attended: ________________________

Expected year of graduation: ____________ Previous degrees, if any: ___________________________

Please return this application with the following:

1. A brief biographical description of yourself including your career goals.
   a. Include a short description of how a book award of $250.00 would benefit you.
   b. Please include your GPA and your age, as this award is specifically for mature students (women 30 and over).

2. A copy of your current transcript

Signature: ___________________________________________ Date: __________________________

Complete, sign and return your application by April 1, 2015

Attn: Holly Hall
4257 South Carrie Drive
New Palestine, IN 46163
Phone: 317/313-3497

or Scan and Email to: dhall3333@aol.com